TEEN BOOK BINGO!

Young Adult Literary Games at the Goleta Library

GOLETA, CA – June 15, 2012

All teens ages 10-16 are sought for Teen Book Bingo! The Santa Barbara Public Library System invites fans of books written for teens to come to the Goleta Library to play a literary version of bingo. Instead of numbered cards, this game is played with cards featuring favorite authors. Extra points are earned for naming the authors' most popular titles! Book-related prizes will be awarded to winners. Prizes include book bags, advance copies of teen bestsellers, and other book-related items.

Teen Book Bingo will be played Tuesday, JULY 24th at the Goleta Library, 500 North Fairview Ave. in Goleta. The first bingo board starts at around 6:45 p.m. Pre-registration guarantees players a spot.

Visit the library system's web site www.sbplibrary.org to find out about these and other programs at the Goleta Public Library. The annual Library Summer Reading Program for teens is open for registration: Dream Big, READ! – read books, visit the library, earn prizes! All library programs are free and open to the public.
